DOTHAN, ALABAMA. TUESDAY EVENING, JULY 30TH, 1909.

MEETING OF COUNCIL

IN REGULAR SESSION YESTERDAY AFTERNOON

City Clerk To Mail Water and Power Notices on First of Each Month.

The City Council met in regular session yesterday afternoon. There were present, President of the Council A. Y. Malone, Aldermen Holland, Pileher, Grant, Whiddon, Fenn and Black.

Mr. H. C. Calvin again appeared and prayed that the Telephone Company be relieved of the three per cent franchise tax. And again the matter was "passed for the present."

Mr. J. E. Wise registered a kick on the policy for $5,000.00 insurance on the school building being given to H. G. Smith at the last meeting. After hearing the evidence, the insurance was adjudged to belong to Mr. Wise and it was so ordered.

Chief of the Fire Department and Fireman Morris were granted a ten days leave of absence. Mr. Morris to get a man to stay in his place during his absence.

The paving proposition of Mr. S. L. Couch was referred to the Mayor.

The dravagat license of J. W. Kainigay was transferred to J. W. Burdshaw.

The City clerk was instructed to mail notices to water and power consumers on the first of each month stating the amount that they are due the city. In this way no one can come up and kick when his water or light is cut off because he has not paid his bill.

No other business being before the council, the meeting adjourned.

STRIKE IS COSTING $80,000 EVERY DAY.

Nearly Six Thousand Men Are Now Idle

Lattburg, Pa., July 12.—While exact figures are unobtainable, it is conservatively estimated that a loss of $60,000, is incurred each day the steel car strike continues. Nearly 6,000 men are idle. The plant has a capacity of about 100 cars a day, which sell at an average price of $1,000 each. The figures show that the company is sustaining a tremendous loss while no product is being turned out.

The strike also causes loss and inconvenience in other parts of the country. Railroads which have ordered cars in a hurry must wait until the trouble is ended. Street car companies must wait for new rolling stock. The Hudson river tunnel has, it is said, complained that it cannot have its subway systems successfully working until the strike is adjusted.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Yesterday afternoon Master Robert Malone entertained a number of his little friends in honor of his eighth birthday. They all had a big time playing, were given lots of good things to eat, and left wishing that Robert would have another birthday real soon.

Mrs. W. M. Poyner left this morning for Ennis, Ala., to visit her parents.

COMER CONFERS

HAS TALK WITH RAILROAD COMMISSION

Louisville and Nashville Adjust High Cross Tie Rate

Immediately after the meeting of the Railroad Commission yesterday Governor Comer had a conference of some nature with the men who compose the Commission. It is presumed that the Governor discussed matters pertaining to the railroads and legislation in the extra session of the Legislature.

A full meeting of the board consisting of Chairman Charles Henderson and Comptroller J. A. Lusk and W. D. Nesbit was held, and the main business was the hearing on the complaint of lumber shippers of Bay Minette and other points nearby that an exorbitant rate was charged by the Louisville and Nashville Railroad for hauling cross ties.

The matter was adjusted when the railroad announced that a lower rate had been made and that higher rates paid will be refunded.

RESOLUTION OF THANKS TO ALABAMA PRESS ASSOCIATION COMMITTEES

MEETING OF BAPTISTS DETAILS OF SHOOTING

CONVENTION BEGINS AT COTTONWOOD MONDAY MORNING

Organization, Convention Sermon and Report Reading the Order of Day

Andalusia, July 19.—The eighth regular session of the Alabama Baptist State Convention will be called to order tomorrow at ten o'clock by Judge N. D. Denson, the President. Rev. M. M. Wood of Turman is the Secretary and is on hand for his work.

The attendance will be very large. Every train so far has been crowded to the utmost. It is expected that tomorrow will bring many more. The work of the day will principally be organization, the convention sermon and reading reports.

The State Board of Missions is called to meet at ten o'clock in the morning to hear the report of Secretary Compton. The following members are already present and others expected in time of the meeting: President to Mr. Miles, George W. Ellis, C. A. Smith, W. J. Elliott, J. W. O'Hara, F. L. Denson, D. L. Green and F. L. Cox.

The entertainment committee under the direction of Pastor J. J. Lee has everything in good shape and is handling the hosts with ease. The old time Southern hospitality is being extended. There will be matters of great importance that will come up for an elaborate discussion of the day.

The Woman's Missionary Union will not have its session concurrently with the State convention as they now have their meeting in the fall of the year. There will be no report on women's work during the convention.

The Baptist Young People's Union of the State has its convention in the spring and only men attend. All of its work is men's work. The principal work will be the general work of the denomination. J. W. O'Hara.

SPRAINED ANKLE

Mrs. Frank Price happened to a very painful though not serious accident Sunday night while on her way home from church. She came into one of the main holes in the streets and sidewalks of Dothan and sprained her ankle.

Another demonstration of the bad condition of our streets and the necessity of repairing them at once before some one comes to serious harm and the city gets a healthy damage suit on hand.

Misses Ima and Corine Peterman went to Jakes this morning to spend a while with their uncle.

LEAVES FOR MONTGOMERY

Captain I. A. Dothan, First Regiment Alabama National Guards left this morning for Montgomery for their drill at Camp McPherson.

The boys had a special car attached to the train. They always make a record in the camp and while and receive many compliments from the officers and public on their fine appearance and training. We expect no less of them this year.

When I J. Austin Was Wounded in the Arm By A Bad Negro

Details of the shooting of I. J. Austin at Cottonwood reached the Eagle late yesterday afternoon, and from all accounts the citizens of Cottonwood distinguished themselves with glory in displaying true courage and nerve in the face of great danger. The negro was according to reports about as follows:

The negro Brown was arrested in a case about a month ago on a charge of carrying a pistol or concealed weapons. He broke jail and escaped without any much delay.

Yesterday he returned to the village and made himself perfectly at home among his old acquaintances giving out the information to all who showed any interest in his welfare that he would not suffer himself to be arrested. This information has since been authentic. Behind this he was found time to display so Brown had the freedom of the town. Every one made room for him. He was not stopped for pass at any place he wished to go.

When darkness fell the coming of some of the more bold citizens began to be. Finally seven men well armed and prepared to meet any emergency proceeded with due caution to the house where Brown was spending the night. They loudly told the negro that he was under arrest but the negro did not appear to be in the least bit concerned. They told him that they had come after him but he did not have one to go. So back to the town the brave boys held and Brown slowly took a nap.

When the boys got back to town they got up a company soon after or twenty strong. They surrounded them in and ordered for bloody encounter. The whole business returned to Brown's place of abode. He refused to watch and guard the house at night. About ten o'clock the mayor of the town went down and had a talk an appeal to reason with the negro. Brown stood in front of a window and the mayor argued the matter for about thirty minutes. The mayor proposed Brown that if he would give himself up as a prisoner would be let him that he would see that no one hurt him. Brown allowed that he was certain no one would hurt him. Therefore he saw no reason to surrender. The mayor still delivered an ultimatum. If Brown did not surrender, the first posse would stay here and guard the house all night. Brown's reply was that if they did stay there would be something done by four o'clock the next day.

The boys resolved to stay on and guard the house. They were all armed and the posse produced several of his own and were on the ground for some time. There were guns all about but none of them were of any great use. With calm step and alert eye ready to meet any move

CHARGE OF GRAFT

MADE AGAINST F. J. HENRY, SPECIAL COUNSEL

Who is Said to Have Received $23,000, Giving No Service in Return

Washington, July 19.—That Francis J. Henry, special counsel of the Department of Justice and also assistant prosecutor in the so-called graft cases in San Francisco, received from this government last year $23,000 for which he performed no service was the rank admission of Chairman Lawrence of the Appropriation Committee of the House today.

How much did Henry receive in the year 1908? demanded Mr. Murphy (Republican Mo.) and what service did he perform?

Mr. Lawrence then received $23,000 and performed no service for the Government whatever during that year.

Subsequently Mr. Lawrence said: "As a matter of fact, Mr. Henry has not performed any active service for the last three years. He was appointed Nov. 7, 1903, and his active service continued for that night he made against him, the negro quietly walked over the twenty men and proceeded about his business. When about seven or five yards off some one recovered sufficiently from their hurry to cry "shoot him". And then it was wonderful to see how those boys could shoot they made more noise than the old vets and at Gettysburg or Roosevelt did at San Juan Hill. When the smoke from the guns became so dense that no one could see how to shoot some one gave the command to "cease firing". The Red Cross Society found one wounded man on the field of battle. He had a bullet through his arm and the bullet went in from behind.

Sherriff Butler was notified and went down with the dogs early yesterday morning. But no trace of Brown could be found. Probably a friend told him that a man was coming for him and he hid. The man is back in Dothan in Cottonwood.

civic improvements and I am sure that is why everything looked so nice and clean. I was told that the ladies extended their work to the cemetery and there isn't any question but that the city fathers appreciate their work.

The Commercial Club

The Commercial club of Dothan is comprised of live, active men who know how to do the right thing at the right moment and who never fail to be on the alert for anything which might benefit the city.

As a matter of fact they have much of the wiregrass section under their wing and the farmer hunting a good site is as much sought as the millionaire who would promote a factory.

There's the secret of their success too and that is why Dothan is growing by leaps and bounds and will eventually be ranked what she is now in name, the metropolis of the wiregrass.

The Banks

Dothan has four fine banks and ranks fifth in the state of the State of Alabama from a standpoint of banking capital. In 1910, twenty years old and stands fifth in the bankers directory. What will she be in twenty years hence?

Conclusion.

In conclusion and in all earnest ness, Dothan impressed me greater than any small city I have ever visited in my long experience. I repeat that I do not sacrifice on atom of my confidence in Dothan. I have returned no less a "Bossmen Booster" but I am broad enough I hope to give credit where much is due. If I could not hand a man for Bossmen, and I should ask me where he could find another city offering inducements I would say Go to Dothan. The great mass of the people in an on the tide which due to them to the western growth and farming fields could I will all of the puns and set their faces to the south and hunt them that spot which in twenty years has made the much room growth of some western cities pale into insignificance. Great is Dothan and great are its people. May its shadow westward grow long and may the efforts of its people secure the results they so richly deserve.

about three years for which he received in all $69,000." Asked by Mr. Cox (Ind.) if any of this deficiency was due to the employment of special counsel to prosecute any trust, Mr. Tawney, answering in the affirmative, said the suit against the tobacco trust had occasioned some of it.

Paid For Naval Stores Case

Mr. Bennett (N. Y.) added that the prosecution of the turpentine trust was also responsible for some of it.

Mr. Clark (Mo.) denounced the appointment of incompetent district attorneys, necessitating, as he said, the employment of special counsel. The practice had grown into a bad habit, he said, and an expensive one. He declared that if there had been a competent district attorney or two in the West there would never have been so much stealing of public lands.

Mr. Mann (Ill.) said Mr. Henry needed no defense. "The only people opposed to him," he remarked, "are those who sympathize with some of those who have been accused if not convicted of graft."

Mr. Burke (Pa.) called the Illinois man to order, saying that Mr. Mann's admission that Mr. Henry needed no defense "disposed of the necessity of consuming the House's time."

"I am glad," said Mr. Mann, "that any one member, and he from the great and pure State of Pennsylvania is opposed to Mr. Henry."

Fearful that Mr. Henry would get a further allowance, Mr. Fitzgerald offered an amendment prohibiting it.

Smiling under Mr. Mann's sarcastic reference to Pennsylvania as a "great and pure" State, Mr. Burke charged that he had been placed in the position of denouncing a competent and earnest public officer. He had objected to it, he said, because Mr. Mann was abusing the privilege and patience of the House.

Tilt Waxen Warm

The suggestion of Mr. Mann in his criticism is gratuitous, but I want to say, he remarked with some warmth, that when the great and pure State of Pennsylvania wishes to have its politics or its morals improved, it will not go to the gentlemen from Illinois or the city of Chicago from which the gentleman hails.

Far back in the chamber, Mr. Moore (Pa.) was trying to attract the attention of Mr. Burke. When he succeeded, he propounded a series of questions which moved the House to laughter.

Do you not recall Mr. Moore's regard as highly complimentary, he referred to Pennsylvania? I do, emphatically replied Mr. Burke.

"Do you deny that Pennsylvania is a great and pure state?" Mr. Moore enquired.

"I do not," responded Mr. Burke.

The Fitzgerald amendment was voted down as was one by Mr. Cullip (Ind.) prohibiting the payment of any part of the deficiency appropriation toward the employment of special counsel to assist in extraditing Delavan Smith of the Indianapolis News or Joseph Pulitzer of the New York World in connection with the Pennsylvania canal suit growing out of the Panama Canal project.
